Team Selection:

- A. 500 or better division record
- B. 500 or better class record
- C. 500 or better class division record
- D. Plus points in the division
- E. Overall plus points
- F. 500 or better overall record
- G. Committee selection

Tournament Structure

Seeding will be done by dividing the number of division games into the total number of division points. In class A seeding will be done according to OCIAA record. Overall Division I, Division 2 records.

1. Tournament Seeding Selection- Tie Breaker Process

- a. Head to head competition
- b. Goals allowed head to head
- c. Total goals allowed in all Class A games

2. Responsibilities

- a. The team with the home field advantage will furnish an announcer, competent timers and scorers, ticket takers, security and any other personnel to secure a safe environment. NOTE: a responsible adult must be responsible for the game time clock operations. The same is highly recommended for penalty time clock operators as well.
- b. Home school will assume payments of officials and retain gate receipts.
- c. Traveling team will assume bus responsibility

All Athletic Directors have been given a access code to log in. If you do not have one see your AD.
4. All rosters and team pictures MUST be on your Max Prep site by: May 29th, 2019

Section IX Lighting and Thunder Policy

1. Purpose and Philosophy

The purpose of a lightning and thunder policy is to provide a safeguard for athletic contest, event and practices

2. Policy

The occurrence of lightning and thunder is NOT subject to interpretation or debate. Lightning and thunder necessitates that contests, or practices be immediately suspended.

3. Procedures

A. Chain of Command

1. The chain of command at athletic events is defined as:
 - a. Superintendent of Schools
 - b. Principal/Building Administration
 - c. Sports Chairs or their designees
 - d. Athletic Coordinator
 - e. Host site Athletic Director or their designees
 - f. Officials
 - g. Sponsoring coach
 - h. Security Personnel

B. Sequential Response will include:

1. Suspend play and direct participants to shelter in a public building or if building is unavailable, to a vehicle with a solid top.
2. Monitor weather scanners/stations
3. After lightning and thunder has passed, wait a full 30 minutes after the last lightning strike and /or sound of thunder before resuming play.
4. Event suspension or evacuation procedures to be outlined during pre-event announcements.

C. Host School Responsibilities will include:

1. To make a pre-event announcement that notes rules, regulations and evacuation procedure.
2. Announcement to be read: "All spectators, competitors, and personnel should go inside to the school building as quickly as possible. A vehicle with a metal roof and the windows rolled up is a safe alternative to a sturdy building. DO NOT take shelter under trees or other lone objects. DO NOT remain on, under, or near metal bleachers, fences, or backstops.”

3. Authority to execute the sequential response shall be governed by the chain of command.
4. Consideration to cancel or resume play must take into account a minimum 30 minute wait from the time of interruption. The rules of the sport will determine whether the contest is official or if the contest must resume at a later date.
5. To plan for the occurrence of bad weather.

HEAT INDEX PROCEDURES

Administration of Heat Index Procedures:

- Feels Like Temperature (Heat index) will be checked 1 hour before the contest/practice by a certified athletic trainer, athletic director, or school designee when the air temperature is 80 degrees (Fahrenheit) or higher.
- Download WeatherBug app to your phone or log into weatherbug.com.
- Enter zip code or city and state in the location section of the app or on-line.
- If the Feels Like temperature (heat index) is 90 degrees or above, the athletic trainer, athletic director, or school designee must re-check the Feels Like temperature (heat index) at halftime or midway point of the contest. If the Feels Like temperature (heat index) temperature is 96 degrees (Fahrenheit) or more, the contest will be suspended.

Please refer to the following chart to take the appropriate actions:

held if air conditioned.

Section IX Athletics

Greg Ransom, Executive Director

Section IX Coaches Code of Conduct

In order to ensure that the principals of sportsmanship, fair play, skill development, and mutual respect among players, coaches, officials and spectators are the primary consideration governing competition in Section IX, the following Code of Conduct has been established and adopted.

Each coach shall:

1. Know the rules and abide by them. Instruct team members in the rules and coach their team in such a way as to motivate each player to compete according to the rules at all times.
2. Respect the game officials and refrain from questioning their decisions in a disrespectful and abusive manner. No negative comments in the media.
3. Ensure that all facility rules and regulations are followed by the players, coaches and spectators, respecting at all times the property of others.
4. Assist the game officials in maintaining control of spectators during the games when necessary.
5. Respect the coaches and players of the opposing team and demonstrate appropriate gestures of sportsmanship during the play of the game and at its conclusion. Be humble and generous in victory. Be proud and courteous in defeat. Teach each player, especially through personal example, to be humble and generous in victory and proud and courteous in defeat.
6. Maintain emotional and physical control, avoid the use of abusive language or profanity, humiliating remarks, gestures of ill temper, and physical assault upon another individual. Coaches should refrain from making comments from the bench during opponent's free kicks or throw-ins.
7. Instruct team support personnel (e.g. assistant coaches, managers, scorebook keepers, and timekeepers) in their responsibilities in accordance with established rules and procedures.
8. Realize, accept and practice the principals that a team's reputation is built not only on its playing ability, but also on its sportsmanship, courtesy and conduct.
